

MODALS

Choose the statement or statements which convey(s) the same meaning as each of the following.

1. "You should have written it better."
  - a) You didn't write it very well.
  - b) You wrote it better than I expected.
  - c) There was no way for you to write it better.
  - d) You needn't write it again.

2. "They must have done it."
  - a) They were obliged to do it.
  - b) They probably did it.
  - c) I doubt if they did it.
  - d) They haven't done it yet.

3. "John needn't have written it."
  - a) John ought not to have written it.
  - b) John couldn't have written it.
  - c) John didn't need to write it.
  - d) There was no need but he wrote it anyway.

4. "Keith didn't need to take the car."
  - a) He mustn't take his car.
  - b) It was silly of him to take the car.
  - c) He took the car even though it wasn't necessary.
  - d) He didn't take the car.

5. "I wish you had told me."
  - a) You may not have told me.
  - b) You should have told me.
  - c) You must have told me.
  - d) You might have told me.

6. "I happened to meet her..."
  - a) I was expecting to meet her, and so I did.
  - b) We had arranged a meeting but I missed her.
  - c) I met her quite by chance.
  - d) I came across her.